

God Calls it Good:

Exploring God's good design for marriage and family

By Karen and Emily Cox

In the beginning

before there was sinning,

God's very good plan

was a woman
and a man, united for life

as husband and wife -

Living together and loving each other faithful through sunshine and stormy weather!

God made marriage when the world was brand new -

He calls it good and we should too!

*Today the world is messed up It doesn't work like it should
But in the beginning God called marriage and family good
We should call them good too They show us things about who God is -
He is faithful to his people and his promises are true*
